Yesterday was the first real baseball day that the amateurs have had this year, and the way in which they availcat, and the way in which they availed themselves of the opportunity to show what they could do was a real pleasure to the fans.

The boys were out in full force all over the city, the youngsters especially seemed to think that the early

On yesterday afternoon the real ball players were out in full, and judging from the way that the kids handled themselves there is going to be some amateur baseball this season.

The Richmond Collegians have a team that would make any manager feel sure of playing in the intercity series. Dr. Bagby learned a lesson from last year and will not walt for college players this year but has goed ability, as well as some of the best baseball brains in this country. Dr. Bagby says that Lee Park, his home grounds, are in fine condition and the street car people promise to give them excellent service to the park every Saturday.

Kally, of Richmond, pushing them

The Richmond League is progressing, and managers report their out-look for a prosperous season as most encouraging. President Crowder, of this league, is a hustler and will see to it that his league is as well regulated as any in the city.

The Commercial League, which is a new organization, is getting down to business and expects to win the postseason series from the Richmond League this season.

The Central League is still the same well regulated organization that it has been for the past two seasons, and the managers report that their teams are in readiness for the opening next Saturday.

The West End League teams have completed their arrangements for the season, and Dr. Wallis, the president, is an enthusiastic amateur fan, and is giving his boys most valuable assistance in regards to the management of their teams. This league is lowest class league under the juris-diction of the commission

The commission will meet Tuesday Bank, and President Hill requests that 190-31 N. Tyler's Champions Defeated.

Tyler's and Battle Axe played one of the prettiest games of the season at Byrd Park. Sanderson, the crack pitcher of Tyler's last year, made his debut with Battle Axe, and had his curves and speed which won all of the games for Tyler's in the Old Dominion League last year. Harvey, of the Battle Axe, pitched the whole game for Tyler's, and he did some fine pitching, striking out ten of the blg boys. The features were the hitting of Heiker and Gentry, for Tyler's, each one making three hits apiece. Gentry, of Tyler's, played first base like a fiend, and his base-running and fadeaway slide fooled the Axes. Blunt caught a good game, and his hitting was the cause of victory for his team. Burch also did some hitting in pinches. The Tyler's team looked like a new team, with three new faces in their line-up, and judging from the showing which they made against the Axes, they are going to give some of the teams in the Old Dominion League a hard time for the rag.
